Customer Reviews

My son, who just turned 12, enjoys this devotion before turning his lights out at night. It's not so deep that he can't go to sleep, yet it's filled with little nuggets and great scripture. He's often excited about what he's read and he will be delighted to share the story or scripture with us. It's perfect for his age and easy for him to understand. I recommend this book for your tween.

This devotional has been excellent. I've been trying to encourage my son to do devotions on his own outside of our family devotions. We got this devotional for him for Christmas and so far he has not missed a day, and that's without any reminders from my husband or I. It's keeping his interest and the devotionals are short, and very much to the point. I highly recommend this devotional to anyone who knows a boy 9 to 12 years old!

This is a neat devotional for boys

Several children in 'my' devotional group bought this book. The format is great and has space to reflect on the devotion for the day. A great book for a family to discover God together.
