Synopsis

Seventeen year-old Alex Petrovic is thrilled to be playing goal in an international hockey tournament. He has his sights set on a college hockey scholarship, and scouts from all the big-time schools will be there. After a game against a team from Eastern Europe, he shakes hands with the opposing goalie, Stefan Divac, and finds himself staring at his identical double. At first he doesn't know what to make of it. Then his mother sees Stefan and faints dead away. The chance meeting uncovers family secrets buried in the wake of a civil war back in their home country that separated the brothers when they were infants. When the two war criminals who were responsible for tearing their family apart escape, Alex dreams of bringing them to justice. Can his dream become reality? Shortlisted for the Arthur Ellis Mystery Award

Customer Reviews

Both of my boys, preteen, read this book and couldn't put it down until they finished it. With the hockey theme, it was easy to get them to read it. Once they started they were hooked. They can't wait for the next book by Mr. Betcherman. If your kids love hockey and mysteries, this is a great book for them.

Excellent book!
